

General Directorate of Prisons Affairs

Publications

The Publications section of the General Directorate of Prisons Affairs provides the latest official news, announcements, statements, and updates on the activities and programs of the Directorate. It keeps citizens, media organizations, government institutions, and international partners informed about developments in prison administration, rehabilitation programs, and correctional services.

Official News and Updates

This section features official information on the Directorate's activities, institutional programs, prison management initiatives, rehabilitation efforts, staff development, and other important developments related to correctional services.

Public Information

Through its publications, the Directorate promotes transparency and ensures that accurate and timely information is available to the public and relevant stakeholders through official channels.